AGREEMENT
COVERING THE STATUS OF THE NATIONAL ELEMENTS OF [EAPC sending nation] OF THE EURO-ATLANTIC DISASTER RESPONSE UNIT
ON MISSION ON THE TERRITORY OF [the stricken EAPC nation]

1. Definitions

1.1. In the present Agreement, the specific terms used are those contained in the Euro-Atlantic Partnership Council (EAPC) Policy on "Enhanced Practical Cooperation in the Field of International Disaster Relief".

2. Application Of The Present Agreement

2.1. Unless specifically provided otherwise, the provisions of the present Agreement apply only on the territory of [the stricken EAPC nation]⁴.

3. General Immunities

3.1. [The stricken EAPC nation] grants to the [Nationality] National Element of the Euro-Atlantic Disaster Response Unit (EADRU) provided by [EAPC sending nation], including its property, funds, assets and personnel, the privileges and immunities specified in the present Agreement and to extent those given in the [North Atlantic Treaty Organisation \(NATO\) Status of Forces Agreement \(SOFA\) and Partnership for Peace \(PfP\) SOFA to the civil component of the [Nationality] National Element of the EADRU.

4. Status of the EADRU Operation

⁴ Text in square brackets to be completed as appropriate

4.1. The [Nationality] National Element of the EADRU will refrain from any action or activity incompatible with the humanitarian nature of their duties or inconsistent with the spirit of the present Agreement. The [Nationality] National Element of the EADRU will respect all local laws and regulations. The head of the [Nationality] National Element of the EADRU shall take all appropriate measures to ensure the observance of these obligations

Identification and Vehicle Markings

4.2. The Government of [the stricken EAPC nation] grants to the [Nationality] National Element of the EADRU the right to display within its territory the national flag or other suitable identification at its headquarters, camps or other premises, and on its vehicles, engines, aircraft's and vessels. The civil and military personnel deployed under the provisions of the EADRU will wear the appropriate armband.

Communications

4.3. As stated in the "Tampere Convention on the Provision of Telecommunication Resources for Disaster Mitigation and Relief Operations" the Government of [the stricken EAPC nation] grants to the [Nationality] National Element of the EADRU the right to use the facilities to communications as may be required for the performance of its task.

4.4. The right is given to the [Nationality] National Element of the EADRU to install and operate radio sending and receiving stations as well as satellite systems to connect appropriate points within the territory of [the stricken EAPC nation], with each other and with its national telecommunications network. The telecommunication services will be operated in accordance with the International Telecommunication Convention and Regulations and the frequencies on which such stations may operate will be decided upon in co-operation with the Government of [the stricken EAPC nation].

4.5. The right is given, within the territory of [the stricken EAPC nation], to the [Nationality] National Element of the EADRU to unrestricted communication by radio (including satellite, mobile and hand-held radio), telephone, telegraph, facsimile or any other means, and of establishing the necessary facilities for maintaining such communications within and between premises of the [Nationality] National Element of the EADRU, including the laying of cable and land lines and the establishment of fixed and mobile radio sending, receiving and repeater stations. The frequencies on which the radio will operate will be decided upon in co-operation with the Government of [the stricken EAPC nation].

4.6. The [Nationality] National Element of the EADRU is allowed to make arrangements through its own facilities for the processing and transport of private mail addressed to or emanating from members of the [Nationality] National Element of the EADRU. The Government of [the stricken EAPC nation] shall be informed of the nature of such arrangements and undertakes not to interfere with or apply censorship to the mail of the [Nationality] National Element of the EADRU or its members. In the event that postal arrangements applying to private mail of members of the [Nationality] National Element of the EADRU are extended to transfer of currency or to transport packages and parcels, the conditions under which such operations are conducted will be agreed with the Government of [the stricken EAPC nation].

Travel and Transport

4.7. The Government of the [the stricken EAPC nation] grants to the [Nationality] National Element of the EADRU and its members together with its vehicles, vessels, aircraft and equipment, freedom of movement within the disaster zone of the stricken nation and any other area necessary for the fulfilment of its task. The Government of [the stricken EAPC nation] undertakes to supply the [Nationality] National Element of the EADRU with any information that may be useful in facilitating its movements.

4.8. Vehicles, including all military vehicles, vessels and aircraft of the [Nationality] National Element of the EADRU will not be subject to registration or licensing by the Government of [the stricken EAPC nation], provided that all such vehicles will carry third-party insurance required by the relevant legislation's.

4.9. The [Nationality] National Element of the EADRU may use roads, bridges, tunnels, canals and other waterways, port facilities and airfields without payment of dues, tolls, or charges.

Privileges and Immunities of the National Element of the EADRU

4.10. The Government of [the stricken EAPC nation] grants to the [Nationality] National Element of the EADRU the status, privileges and immunities as provided for in the present Agreement and in particular grants to the [Nationality] National Element of the EADRU the right:

4.10.1. To import, free of duty or other restrictions, equipment, provisions, supplies and other goods which are for the exclusive and official use of the [Nationality] National Element of the EADRU;

4.10.2. To clear ex customs and excise warehouse, free of duty or other restrictions, equipment, provisions, supplies and other goods which are for the exclusive and official use of the [Nationality] National Element of the EADRU; and

4.10.3. To re-export or otherwise dispose of equipment as far as it is still usable, all unconsumed supplies and other goods so imported or cleared ex customs and excise warehouse which are not transferred or otherwise disposed of, on terms and conditions to be agreed upon, to the competent local authorities of [the stricken EAPC nation] or to an entity nominated by them.

4.11. To the end that such importation, clearances, transfer or exportation may be effected with the least possible delay, a mutually satisfactory procedure along the lines recommended by the "Concept On The Use Of The EADRU In International Disaster Relief", including documentation, shall be agreed between the [Nationality] National Element of the EADRU and the local authorities of [the stricken EAPC nation] at the earliest possible date.

5. Facilities for EADRU operation

5.1. The Government of [the stricken EAPC nation] undertakes to provide without cost to the [Nationality] National Element of the EADRU, in agreement with the EAPC sending nation, such areas for headquarters, camps or other premises as may be necessary for the conduct of the operational and administrative activities of the [Nationality] National Element of the EADRU and for the accommodations of its members. Without prejudice to the fact that all such premises remain the territory of [the stricken EAPC nation], the Government of [the stricken EAPC nation] undertakes to treat them as being subject to the exclusive control and authority of the Head of the [Nationality] National Element of the EADRU.

5.2. The Government of [the stricken EAPC nation] undertakes to assist the [Nationality] National Element of the EADRU as far as possible in obtaining and making available, where applicable, water, electricity and other facilities free of charge, or, where it is not possible, at the most favourable rate, and in the case of interruption or threatened interruption of service, to give as far as possible within its powers the same priority to the needs of the [Nationality] National Element of the EADRU as to essential government services. Where such utilities or facilities are not provided free of charges, payment shall be made by the [Nationality] National Element of the EADRU on terms to be agreed upon with the competent authority. The [Nationality] National Element of the EADRU shall be responsible for the maintenance and upkeep of facilities so provided.

5.3. The [Nationality] National Element of the EADRU shall be given the right, where necessary, to generate electricity for its use and to transmit and distribute such electricity.

Provisions, Supplies, Services and Sanitary Arrangements

5.4. [The stricken EAPC nation] undertakes to assist the [Nationality] National Element of the EADRU as far as possible in obtaining equipment, provisions supplies and other goods and services from local sources required for its subsistence and operations. In making purchases on the local market, the [Nationality] National Element of the EADRU shall, on the basis of observations made and information provided by the Government of [the stricken EAPC nation] in that respect, avoid any adverse effect on the local economy. The Government of [the stricken EAPC nation] shall exempt the [Nationality] National Element of the EADRU from sales taxes in respect of all official local purchases.

5.5. The [Nationality] National Element of the EADRU shall co-operate with the Government of [the stricken EAPC nation] with respect to sanitary services and matters concerning health, particularly with respect to the control of communicable diseases, in accordance with international conventions.

Recruitment of Local Personnel

5.6. The [Nationality] National Element of the EADRU may recruit locally such personnel as it requires. Upon the request of the Head of the [Nationality] National Element of the EADRU, the Government of [the stricken EAPC nation] undertakes to facilitate the recruitment of qualified local staff by the [Nationality] National Element of the EADRU and to accelerate the process of such recruitment.

6. Status of the Members of the EADRU

Privileges and Immunities

6.1. [The stricken EAPC nation] shall afford the necessary privileges, immunities and facilities to the Head of the [Nationality] National Element of the EADRU and other members, being duly notified to and accepted by the Government of [the stricken EAPC nation].

6.2. These privileges, immunities and facilities will include:

6.2.1. Immunity from legal process, arrest and detention, in respect of words spoken or written acts or omissions done by them in their official capacity and within the limits of their authority; and

6.2.2. Exemption from taxation, duties or other charges, except those which are normally incorporated in the price of goods or paid for services rendered (such as air navigation charges or airport charges), in respect of the performance of their official functions.

6.3. Unless otherwise specified in the present Agreement, locally recruited members of the [Nationality] National Element of the EADRU will enjoy the immunities concerning official acts carried out within the EADRU operation.

6.4. Members of the [Nationality] National Element of the EADRU will be granted the right to import free of duty their personal effects in connection with their arrival in [the stricken EAPC nation]. Special facilities will be granted by the Government of [the stricken EAPC nation] for the speedy processing of entry and exit formalities for all members of the [Nationality] National Element of the EADRU.

6.5. On departure from [the stricken EAPC nation], members of the [Nationality] National Element of the EADRU may, notwithstanding the above-mentioned exchange regulations, take with them such funds as the Head of the [Nationality] National Element of the EADRU certifies were received or represent a reasonable residue thereof.

6.6. The Head of the [Nationality] National Element of the EADRU shall co-operate with the Government of [the stricken EAPC nation] and shall render all assistance within his power to ensure the observance of the customs and fiscal laws and regulations of [the stricken EAPC nation] by the members of his National Element of the EADRU, in accordance with the present Agreement.

Entry, Residence and Departure

6.7. The Government of [the stricken EAPC nation] grants to the members of the [Nationality] National Element of the EADRU the right to enter, reside in, and depart from its territory.

6.8. The Government of [the stricken EAPC nation] undertakes to facilitate the entry into and departure from its territory of the members of the [Nationality] National Element of the EADRU and shall be kept informed of such movements. For that purpose, the members of the [Nationality] National Element of the EADRU will be exempt from passport and visa regulations and immigration inspection and restrictions on entering or departing from [the stricken EAPC nation]. They will also be exempt from any regulation governing the residence of foreigners in [the stricken EAPC nation], including registration, but will not acquire any right to permanent residence or domicile in that country.

6.9. For the purpose of such entry and departure, members of the [Nationality] National Element of the EADRU will be required to have:

6.9.1. An individual or collective movement order issued by or under the authority of the Head of the [Nationality] National Element of the EADRU or by any appropriate authority of [the EAPC sending nation]; and

6.9.2. A personal identity card issue by the appropriate authorities of [the EAPC sending nation].

Identification

6.10. The Head of the [Nationality] National Element of the EADRU shall issue to all locally recruited personnel an identity card, which shall contain the following information: full name, date of birth, service (if appropriate), and a photograph.

6.11. Members of the [Nationality] National Element of the EADRU, as well as locally recruited personnel, will be required to present, but not to surrender their identity cards upon demand by an appropriate official of the Government of [the stricken EAPC nation].

Uniforms and Arms

6.12. Members of the [Nationality] National Element of the EADRU will be permitted to wear the national uniforms of their country. In accordance with Paragraph 10 of the “Concept for the Use of the EADRU in International Disaster Relief”, its personnel shall be identified by the appropriate armlet.

6.13. In accordance with Paragraph 9 of the “Concept for the Use of the EADRU in International Disaster Relief”, the members of the [Nationality] National Element of the EADRU may not carry arms.

Or

may carry arms for their own protection, while performing official duties.⁵

Permits and Licences

6.14. The Government of [the stricken EAPC nation] agrees to accept as valid, without tax or fee, a certificate provided on request by the Head of the [Nationality] National Element of the EADRU in respect of the technical and professional qualifications of any of its members practising a profession or similar occupation in connection with the EADRU operation.

Maintenance of Discipline and Mutual Assistance

6.15. The Head of the [Nationality] National Element of the EADRU shall take all appropriate measures to ensure the maintenance of discipline and good order among its members, as well as locally recruited personnel. To this end, personnel may be designated by the Head of the [Nationality] National Element of the EADRU to police its premises as well as such areas where its members are deployed. Elsewhere such personnel will be employed only subject to arrangements with the Government of [the stricken EAPC nation] and in liaison with it, in so far as such employment is necessary to maintain discipline and order among members of the [Nationality] National Element of the EADRU.

6.16. The personnel mentioned in Paragraph 6.15 above may take into custody any unauthorised person found on the premises of the operation of the [Nationality] National Element of the EADRU. Such a person shall immediately be delivered to the nearest appropriate official of the Government of [the stricken EAPC nation] responsible for dealing with any offence or disturbance on such premises.

6.17. Subject to the provisions of Paragraph 6.1 above, officials of the Government of the [the stricken EAPC nation] may take into custody any members of the [Nationality] National Element of the EADRU:

6.17.1. When so requested by the Head of the [Nationality] National Element of the EADRU; and

⁵ Delete as appropriate.

6.17.2. When such a member of the [Nationality] National Element of the EADRU is apprehended in the commission or attempted commission of a criminal offence. Such a person shall be delivered immediately, together with any weapons or other items seized, to the Head of the [Nationality] National Element of the EADRU.

6.18. The [Nationality] National Element of the EADRU and the Government of [the stricken EAPC nation] will assist each other in carrying out all necessary investigations into offences in respect of which either or both have an interest.

6.19. The Government of [the stricken EAPC nation] shall ensure the prosecution of persons subject to its criminal jurisdiction who are accused of acts in relation to the operation of the [Nationality] National Element or its members which, if committed in relation to the officials of the Government of [the stricken EAPC nation], would have rendered such acts liable to prosecution.

7. Jurisdiction

7.1. The Government of [the stricken EAPC nation] grants to all members of the [Nationality] National Element, including locally recruited personnel, immunity from legal process in respect of words spoken or written and all acts performed by them in their official capacity. Such immunity shall continue even after they cease to be members of, or employed by, the [Nationality] National Element of the EADRU and after the expiration of the provisions of the present Agreement.

7.2. Should the Government of [the stricken EAPC nation] consider that any member of the [Nationality] National Element has committed a criminal offence, it shall promptly inform the head of the [Nationality] National Element and present to him any evidence available.

7.3. The Government of the EAPC sending nation gives its assurance to the Government of [the stricken EAPC nation] that it shall exercise jurisdiction with respect to crimes or offences which may be committed by members of the [Nationality] National Element of the EADRU.

7.4. If any civil proceeding is instituted against a member of the [Nationality] National Element of the EADRU before any court of [the stricken EAPC nation], the Head of that National Element shall be notified immediately, and shall be certify to the court whether or not the proceeding is related to the official duties of the member.

7.5. If the Head of the [Nationality] National Element certifies that the proceeding is related to official duties, such proceedings will be discontinued and the provisions of Paragraph 7.1 of the present Agreement will apply.

7.6. If the Head of the [Nationality] National Element certifies that the proceeding is not related to official duties, the proceeding may continue. If he certifies that a member of his National Element is unable because of official duties or authorised absence to protect his interest in the proceeding, the court shall, at the defendant's request, suspend the proceeding until the elimination of the disability, but not for more than ninety days. Property of a member of the [Nationality] National Element of the EADRU that is certified by his Head as necessary for the fulfilment of the member's official functions shall be free from seizure for the satisfaction of a judgement, decision or order. The personal liberty of a member of the [Nationality] National Element shall not be restricted in a civil proceeding, whether to enforce a judgement, decision or order, to compel an oath or for any other reason.

8. Settlement Of Disputes

8.1. Except as provided in Paragraph 8.5, any dispute or claim of a private law character to which the [Nationality] National element of the EADRU or any member thereof is a party and over which the court of [the stricken EAPC nation] does not have jurisdiction, because of any provision of the present Agreement, shall be settled by a Claims Commission to be established for that purpose. One member of the commission shall be appointed by each concerned Government and a Chairman shall be appointed jointly by the Chairman of the North Atlantic Council Deputies and the concerned Governments.

8.2. If no agreement as to the Chairman is reached within thirty days of the appointment of the first member of the commission, the Secretary-General of the NATO appoints the Chairman.

8.3. Any vacancy on the commission shall be filled by the same method prescribed for the original appointment, provided that the thirty-day period there prescribed shall start as soon as the vacancy occurs.

8.4. The commission shall determine its own procedures, provided that any two members will constitute a quorum for all purposes (except for a period of thirty days after the occurrence of a vacancy) and all decisions will require the approval of any two members. The awards of the commission will be final and binding, unless the concerned Governments permit an appeal to a tribunal established in accordance with Paragraph 8.5. The awards of the commission will be notified to the parties and, if against a member of the [Nationality] National Element of the EADRU, the Head of the [Nationality] National Element or the Government of [the EAPC sending nation] shall use its best endeavours to ensure compliance.

8.5. Disputes concerning the terms of employment and conditions of service of locally recruited personnel will be settled by the administrative procedures to be established by the head of the [Nationality] National Element of the EADRU.

8.6. Any other dispute between the [Nationality] National Element of the EADRU and the Government of [the stricken EAPC nation], and any appeal that both of them agree to allow from the award of the claims commission established pursuant to Paragraph 8.1 shall, unless otherwise agreed by the parties, be submitted to a tribunal of three arbitrators. The provision relating to the establishment and procedures of the claims commission shall apply, mutatis mutandis, to the establishment and procedures of the tribunal. The decisions of the tribunal will be final and binding on both parties.

8.7. All differences between the Government of [the EAPC sending nation] and the Government of [the stricken EAPC nation] arising out of the interpretation or application of the present Agreement will be settled by diplomatic means.

9. Supplemental Arrangements

9.1. The Head of the [Nationality] National Elements of the EADRU and the Government of [the stricken EAPC nation] nation may conclude supplemental arrangements to the present Agreement.

10. Liaison

10.1. The Head of the [Nationality] National Elements of the EADRU and the Government of [the stricken EAPC nation] will take appropriate measures to ensure close and reciprocal liaison at every appropriate level.

11. Miscellaneous Provisions

11.1. Wherever the present Agreement refers to the privileges, immunities and rights granted to the [Nationality] National Elements of the EADRU, the Government of [the stricken EAPC nation] shall have the ultimate responsibility for the implementation and fulfilment of such privileges, immunities, rights, and facilities by the appropriate local authorities.

11.2. The present Agreement shall enter into force on(date).

11.3. The present Agreement shall remain in force until the departure of the final echelon of the [Nationality] National Element of the EADRU from [the stricken EAPC nation], excepting Paragraphs 7.1, 7.2 and 7.3, Paragraphs 8.1 to 8.6 and Paragraph 10, which will remain in force until all claims have been settled that had arisen prior to the termination of the present Agreement and had been submitted prior to or within three months of such termination.
